THE EASTER SATURDAY DAY TOUR

ITINERARY

THE BURRAWANG EASTER MARKET – Residents of Goulburn, and the surrounding areas, can join this day tour at Trapper's Bakery, in South Goulburn, at 8.35am. After departing from the Bakery, you'll head straight to the quaint village of Burrawang, situated between Moss Vale and Robertson. This village comes alive on Easter Saturday, each year, for the annual Burrawang Easter Market. The village streets are closed to make way for up to 150 market stalls, packed with arts, craft, produce, food outlets and much, much more! Whilst in the village, we suggest you try one of Mauger's Meats fabulous hot roast beef rolls, straight from the spit, or call into the hotel for a drink or something to eat. You'll have over two hours to thoroughly enjoy the experience of wandering around this exciting village Fair!

DIRTY JANE'S – Situated at the bottom end of Bong Bong Street, in Bowral, this interesting and intriguing newly designed and renovated shopping complex, spread across three large warehouse spaces, now contains over 75 separate dealers. You'll have around 90 minutes to stroll among these wonderful outlets, which are packed with an impressive range of antique and vintage products, such as furniture, home décor items, clothing, jewellery, kitchenware, china, soft furnishings, garden equipment, timber products, and much, much more! If you don't wish to spend all of the allotted time in this complex, you'll have time for a wander through Bowral's lovely shopping centre.

MOSS VALE SHOPPING CENTRE – During the past two or three years, a number of exciting and interesting new shops have opened in Moss Vale. These individual and unique shops offer a wide range of products, including fashion, homewares, craft, art, furnishings and much, much more. Maybe you'd like to check out some of these shops online before your visit, by doing a Google search of the following names, and include the words Moss Vale in your search: Nest and Burrow, Antelope Co, Bowerbird on Argyle, Mossy Store, Made By Others, Suzie Anderson Home, Country Homes & Interiors, Bernie's Diner, and Highland Merchant. Since opening, these shops have attracted many more visitors to the town, and on some weekends, it is difficult to find a car-parking space in some areas of the town. You're sure to enjoy your stroll through some of these lovely shops! You'll depart from Moss Vale at around 4.15pm, to return home to Goulburn at around 5.15pm.
