THE YOUNG CHERRY FESTIVAL, CANBERRA & OTHER ATTRACTIONS 4-DAY TOUR

Featuring Berrima, Bundanoon, Young, Young Cherry Festival, Hall Christmas Markets, Canberra, Moss Vale, Bowral &amp; More!

ITINERARY

Day 1: Friday 29 November 2024 – The Central Coast, Sydney, Mittagong, Berrima, Bundanoon, Goulburn

Inclusions: Morning Tea, Two-Course Generous-Serve Pre-Ordered Dinner, 4.5-Star Superior Room Accommodation

This morning, between 5.45am and 7.00am, you'll be collected from either outside or close to your home (this service will be available to most people living east of the Pacific Highway between Lake Munmorah and Kariong), and head to Uncle Leo's Roadhouse, near Glenfield, an outer suburb of Sydney. Upon arrival, you'll have time to enjoy a coffee and use the restrooms before, at around 9.45am, boarding the luxury coach to commence your journey to Goulburn. After departing from Uncle Leo's Roadhouse, you'll join the Hume Highway and head straight to Mittagong RSL Club, where you'll be served Morning Tea, consisting of Self-Serve Tea or Coffee and Freshly Baked Scones served with Strawberry Jam and Whipped Cream. You'll depart from the Club at around 11.20am and head to the historic town of Berrima. Set amongst historic and quirky buildings, Berrima shopping precinct is a retail destination in its own right, especially in the lead up to Christmas! With its eclectic mix of retailers, selling locally made handcrafted items, unique and curated collections, boutique gifts and homewares; you're sure to find something unexpected to take home. To name a few: 'The Brown Shutter' – your destination for exquisite giftware and home décor items, jewellery, apparel and artisanal goods, games, books, novelty items, hand-poured candles, bath oils, wooden ducks and much more; 'The Lolly Swagman' – an old fashioned lolly shop that has something for everyone – hard boiled lollies, soft chewy sweets, licorice, chocolates, lolly pops, locally made fudge, classic British and American candies, and confectionery from near and far; 'The Australian Alpaca Barn' – a family-owned business specializing in quality products made from alpaca fibre, including knitwear, garments, coats, capes, shawls, scarves, socks, knitting yarns, toys, throw rugs, blankets, pillows, quilts and more; 'Berrima Post Office' – a cute country post office that stocks a quirky range of gifts, wrapping paper, cards, diffusers, photo frames, soft toys, books and more; 'Berrima's Natural Australia' – stocks a wide range of Merino knitwear, including knitwear, sheepskin coats, sheepskins, blankets, scarves and much more; 'Berrima's Overflow' – stocks a unique collection of beautiful clothing in a riot of colours and textures, scarves, jewellery and more; 'Gumnut Patisserie' – stocks a large range of decadent cakes, patisserie items, savoury and sweet pastry items, and more; 'Mrs Oldbucks Pantry and Table' – stocks a huge range of jams, mustards, fruit jellies, chutneys, toppings, preserves, peanut butter, cookies, biscuits, puddings, candy and much more; and many other wonderful retail outlets housing a range of products that will interest and enthrall you! After having nearly two hours to stroll and browse in the town, you'll reboard the coach to head to the little town of Bundanoon. With a population of around 3000 people, and at a height of 680 metres above sea level, this delightful town is known for its cool climate, lovely gardens, and 'Brigadoon' - its Scottish-themed annual highland gathering. The small but interesting shopping centre houses a number of eating establishments, an eclectic range of shops, such as 'Bundanoon Botanicals' – stocks a wide range of hand-made soaps, natural skin care products, fragrances, bath salts, essential oils, lip balm, foot soaks, furniture polish, soy wax scented candles and much more; 'The Good Yarn' – stocks a lovely range of hand-knitted baby and children's clothes, home-made craft items, local honey, jams, chutneys and other treasures; 'Bundanoon Loves Dogs' – stocks a great range of dog toys, dog collars, leads, coats, beds, treats and much more! You're sure to enjoy just strolling and browsing in this pretty little town! Prior to departing from Bundanoon, why not pop across the railway line for a drink at the famous Bundanoon Hotel. Built in 1922, the Hotel is known for its old-world character and friendly country hospitality. You'll depart from Bundanoon at around 3.00pm to head straight to the Mercure Hotel, in Goulburn. This 4.5-star rated Hotel is located behind the 'Big Merino' – one of Goulburn's premier tourist attractions. Recently refurbished, the Hotel is regarded as the premier hotel in the NSW Southern Tablelands. The Hotel features over 70 well-appointed rooms - all with walk-in showers, free Wi-Fi, and tea & coffee-making facilities. You'll arrive at the Hotel at around 4.00pm. After making your way to your ground-floor Superior Room, your luggage will be delivered to your room by one of the Hotel's porters. You'll have time to relax, go for a stroll to the nearby 'Big Merino' or sit in the Hotel's guest lounge area to chat with your friends, prior to making your way into the Hotel's 'Edge Restaurant' by 6.00pm for a Two-Course Generous-Serve Pre-Ordered Dinner. For Main Course you'll have the choice of either Game Farm Duck Breast, with Celeriac Puree, Fondant Potatoes, Caramelised Eschalots, Cherries and Chambord Glaze, or Treacle Cured Beef Fillet, served with Charred Roscoff Onions, Potato Rosti and Beer and Mushroom Ketchup, or Grilled Barramundi, Tiger Prawn, and Scallop, served with Seafood Bisque, Fondant Potato and Grilled Broccolini. For Dessert you'll have the choice of either Chocolate Delice with Anzac Biscuit Crumble and Honeycomb Ice-Cream, or Lemon Tart, with Raspberry Espuma (foam) and Basil Fluid Gel, or Coconut Tapioca Pudding, with Fresh Seasonal Fruits and Mango Gelato. Tea and Coffee will then be available.

Day 2: Saturday 30 November 2024 – Goulburn, Boorowa, Young, Yass, Goulburn

Inclusions: Full Hot & Cold Breakfast, Full Choice of the Menu Dinner, 4.5-Star Superior Room Accommodation

This morning, between 6.30am and 7.30am, you'll enjoy a Full Hot & Cold Breakfast in the Hotel's 'Edge Restaurant'. You'll depart from the Hotel at around 8.00am to head to the charming country town of Boorowa. With a population of around 2000 residents, and a height above sea level of 490 metres, the town is known for its tree-lined main street, rich surrounding farmland, and St Patrick's Church – the first Roman Catholic Church built west of the Great Dividing Range. Upon arrival, you'll have around an hour to explore the small shopping centre, and to enjoy a refreshment or two in the town's bakery, or other eating establishment. Prior to departing from the town, be sure to pop into 'The Boorowa Visitor Information Centre & Courthouse Arts Craft Co-op'. This retail outlet stocks not only a wide range of local tourist information, but also a range of locally made products such as jams, gifts, knitwear, books, souvenirs, and more! You'll depart from Boorowa at around 10.30am, to head to the town of Young. At a height of 440 metres above sea level, and a population of over 10,000 residents, this thriving rural town, today, is known as the Cherry Capital of Australia. The town, located in a valley encircled by low hills, is surrounded by rich farmland, which produces stone fruits such as cherries, peaches, plums, apricots, and nectarines, and crops such as wheat, oats and barley. The area is also home to a number of vineyards and berry farms, as well as farms housing cattle, sheep and poultry. The town's shopping centre is packed with a large range of shops, boutiques, eating establishments and much more. Be sure to visit the 'Young & Hilltops Visitor Information Centre', that stocks not only an interesting range of tourist information about the area, but also a wide variety of cherry products such as cherry jam, cherry cordial, cherry sauce, chocolate coated cherries, as well as many other local products, such as wine, pickles, honey, natural wax products, natural beauty products, and berry products such as jams and sauces. Also, during your stroll through the town, be sure to visit 'Poppa's Fudge & Jam Factory'. This amazing shop stocks a huge range of jams, chutneys, sauces, chocolates, lollies, and around 40 varieties of fudge – all made on the premises. The shop also stocks a large range of home décor and giftware items. During your visit to the town, today, you'll be able to take in the atmosphere and excitement of the town's annual 'National Cherry Festival'. Held during the weekend of the first Sunday in December each year, the Festival attracts thousands of visitors from elsewhere in New South Wales and Australia. There will be over 100 market stalls in attendance, as well as an all-day entertainment program on the main stage, featuring a range of singers and performers. You'll have around 3½ hours to explore the town centre, enjoy lunch in one of the town's many eating venues, and experience the annual Cherry Festival. You'll depart from Young at around 3.00pm, to head to the nearby Valley Fresh Cherries and Stonefruits. This family owned and operated orchard and Farm Gate sells a range of locally produced items, such as freshly picked cherries and strawberries, cherry pies, jams, sauces, chutneys, honey, and much more! You'll have around 40 minutes to visit the Farm Shop, prior to reboarding the coach at around 3.55pm to head to the Yass Soldier's Club. After making your way into the Club's Bistro, you'll sit down to a Full Choice of the Menu Dinner. After enjoying your Dinner, you'll reboard the coach at around 6.45pm, to return to the Mercure Hotel in Goulburn – arriving at around 7.45pm.

Day 3: Sunday 1 December 2024 – Goulburn, Hall, Canberra, Goulburn

Inclusions: Full Hot & Cold Breakfast, Entry, Two-Course Generous-Serve Pre-Ordered Dinner, 4.5-Star Superior Room Accommodation

This morning, between 6.30am and 8.00am, you'll enjoy a Full Hot & Cold Breakfast in the Hotel's 'Edge Restaurant'. After boarding the coach at around 8.15am, you'll head straight to the Hall Christmas Markets, on the outskirts of Canberra. Held in the showground in the little village of Hall, the Market features around 200 stalls, packed with a huge range of arts, craft, local produce, and much, much more! You'll have nearly two hours to stroll around the Market, and browse the thousands of products on offer. You'll depart from the Markets at around 11.15am, and head to Canberra Centre. Home to around 230 stores, you'll have nearly two hours to stroll around the Centre, and to enjoy lunch in one of the Centre's many eating establishments. If shopping is your thing, or you'd rather stroll to Commonwealth Park, and walk along the shoreline of Lake Burley Griffin and spend a relaxing afternoon taking in the beautiful scenery along the way, you're welcome to do so, as long as you are back at the point where you were dropped off this morning at the time directed by the coach driver. If you'd rather spend the afternoon visiting one of the following popular attractions, you are to reboard the coach at around 1.30pm. The National War Memorial – The Australian War Memorial is the nation's tribute to the courage and sacrifice of generations of men and women who served in war. It houses a collection of relics, personal and public records, art, and media, which tells the story of Australia's experience in world wars, regional conflicts and international peacekeeping. The collection contains unique objects, including the largest collection of Victoria Crosses in the world, a Lancaster bomber, and a number of outstanding dioramas dating from the 1920s. The National Portrait Gallery and/or The National Art Gallery of Australia – The National Portrait Gallery is home to the most extensive collection of portraits in the world. It features portraits of artists, musicians, entertainers, politicians, athletes, scientists, community leaders and more! During your visit to this award-winning building, you'll gain a greater understanding of Australia's identity, history, creativity, culture and diversity. The National Art Gallery of Australia is a great place for art enthusiasts and tourists who are interested in exploring the rich history of Australian and international art. It houses over 155,000 works of art, including the world's largest collection of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art. One of the most notable works in its collection is the mural 'Blue Poles', painted by the American artist, Jackson Pollock, in 1952. Please Note: If you decide to visit The National Portrait Gallery, you'll also be able to visit The National Art Gallery, as they are located opposite each other. The Museum of Australian Democracy at Old Parliament House – Old Parliament House was the seat of Parliament in Australia between 1927 and 1988. In 2009 the building reopened as the Museum of Australian Democracy. During your visit you'll get to visit the House of Representatives Chamber, the Prime Minister's Suite, the building's grand halls and offices, and hear the echoes of the people, parties and prime ministers that shaped Australia's history. Parliament House – This stunning building was opened by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on the 9th of May 1988. It is the place where all federal laws are made that impact on our everyday lives. During your visit you'll have time to go on a free 25-minute guided tour of the building, which includes a visit to one of the chambers. For the balance of your time at the venue, you'll be able to explore the many areas that are open to the public. After disembarking from the coach at the venue of your choice, you'll have around two hours to visit the attraction, prior to the coach returning to collect you. When the coach driver drops you at the venue of your choice, he'll notify you of the time that you'll be required to be back at the point where you were dropped off. Entry into each of these attractions is free, however, if there is a special or travelling exhibition in the venue, then admission charges may apply if you wish to view that particular exhibition. After all the passengers have been collected from the venue of their choice, you'll depart from Canberra at around 4.45pm to return to the Hotel. After returning to the Hotel, you'll have a short time to relax, before heading into the Hotel's 'Edge Restaurant' where you'll sit down to a Two-Course Generous-Serve Pre-Ordered Dinner. For Main Course you'll have the choice of either Twice Cooked Pork Belly with Sea Scallop, Cauliflower and Spinach Puree, Pickled Apple and Potato Croquette, or Lost River Lamb Rump with a Fetta and Herb Crust, served with Paris Potatoes, Grilled Broccolini and a Jus, or Ocean Trout Fillet with Prawn Mousseline, Fennel Cream, Beetroot, Kipler Potatoes, and Lovage Oil. For Dessert you'll have the choice of either Chocolate & Dulce de Leche Tart with Banana Ice-Cream and Passionfruit Gel, or Apple Crumble Crème Brûlée with Apple Brandy Ice Cream, or Seasonal Berry Eton Mess with Berry Ripple Ice-Cream. Self-Serve Tea and Coffee will then be available.

ITINERARY (cont.)

Day 4: Monday 2 December 2024 – Goulburn, Moss Vale, Bowral, Camden, Sydney, The Central Coast

Inclusions: Full Hot & Cold Breakfast, 2-Hour High Tea Experience

This morning, between 6.30am and 8.30am, you'll enjoy a Full Hot & Cold Breakfast in the Hotel's 'Edge Restaurant'. After boarding the coach at around 8.45am, you'll head north to the Southern Highlands town of Moss Vale, where you'll have over an hour to stroll around the busy shopping centre. A number of businesses in this town promote the Christmas spirit and atmosphere, with a wide range of potential Christmas presents on offer, along with beautifully decorated shop windows. Be sure to check out 'Nest & Burrow'. This unique shop is packed with a huge range of potential Christmas presents, Christmas products, homewares, games, jigsaw puzzles, and much more! You'll depart from Moss Vale at around 10.45am to head to the lovely town of Bowral. During the month of December, many of the town's shops and businesses come alive with the spirit of Christmas, featuring beautifully decorated shop windows, and a vast array of unique and different Christmas presents, catering to all tastes and budgets. You'll have around two hours to stroll through the shops and to enjoy lunch in one of the many eating establishments in the town. Be sure not to have too much for lunch, as you need to save some space for what you'll be served at the next venue on today's itinerary! During your visit to the town, be sure to pop into 'Country Accent' – just up from the Post Office. This amazing shop sells a stunning range of Christmas decorations, as well as a huge range of home furnishings, home décor items, basketware, tableware, pots, and much more! Also, a visit to Bowral isn't complete without allocating some time to wander around the 'Dirty Janes' complex, at the southern end of the shopping centre. This small shopping complex is packed with around 90 individual artisans and sellers, stocking items such as antiques, fashion, vintage items, jewellery, home décor items, homewares, furniture and much, much more! You'll depart from Bowral at around 1.00pm to head to Brookfield House in Camden. This historic two-storey homestead, in the heart of the town, has been lovingly restored to its former glory as an authentic English Style Tea House – one of the many lives this grand house has lived since it was constructed for the mounted infantry in 1896. Recently named "Best Tea House Australia" by the Golden Leaf Awards, it is now best known for its fabulous High Teas, and its wide variety of tea related products, including a range of china cups and plates, teapots, spoons, and more! Upon arrival, you will be seated for an elegant High Tea Experience. You'll be served four savoury items (1 x Art Deco Shell Pie filled with Cheesy Broccoli + 1 x Dancing Salmon and Avocado Roll with Balsamic Pearls + 1 Regency Sandwich with locally-sourced Beef & Rocket + 1 x 1896 Chicken Waldorf Basket), four sweet items (1 x Flamingo Tart filled with Rhubarb and Pistachios, topped with decadent Mousse + 1 x Poached Pear Cake with a Royal Bow with a hint of Honey + 1 x Paradise Raspberry Cheesecake with a Buttery Popcorn Fascinator + 1 x other sweet treat), a freshly-baked scone, served with home-made jam by Mrs Oldbucks of Berrima and lashings of freshly-whipped cream. You'll have a choice of tea, coffee or a cold drink. You'll depart from Brookfield House at around 4.00pm to head to Uncle Leo's Roadhouse, in Glenfield, where you'll have the opportunity for a rest stop, before boarding a Feeder Vehicle to be conveyed back to where you joined the tour last Friday morning. Most Central Coast-based passengers will return to their homes between 7.30pm and 8.45pm.
